Bell of the Kearsarge.

O, bell of the Kearsarge, your echoing clangor Will still find its way to the ends of the world Where place can be found for our pennant to hang, or
Our beautiful star-jeweled flag be unfurled.
No foe can silence you; lead was as laughter—
You sang back defiance in resonant bars; Your tongue will yet tell, in the endless hereafter,
The pluck and the prowess of Uncle Sam's tars.

On Bonador reef the deck is deceiving That brave Yankee sailors so gallantly manned,
With masts and with rigging the blue waves are playing;
The keel is a ruin on far desert strand;
But, bell of the Kearsarge, your echoing clangor Will still find its way to the ends of the world Where place can be found for our pennant to hang, or
The folds of "Old Glory" were ever unfurled.

Call for Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Ohio are requested to meet in delegate convention in the city of Columbus, on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 5th and 6th, 1894, to place in nomination candidates for the following offices, viz:

Secretary of State.
One Judge of the Supreme Court.
One Member of the Board of Public Works.

State Commissioner Common Schools.
The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 500 votes cast for William McKinley, the Republican candidate for Governor in 1893, and one for each fraction of 250 or over. Upon this basis the representation of Highland county is eight delegates.

The delegates from the several Congressional Districts will convene on Tuesday, June 5th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of choosing Vice-Presidents of the convention and members of the various committees, including the State Central Committee. The convention will be called to order on June 5th, at 4 o'clock p. m. for temporary organization, receiving reports of District Committees and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the convention.

Delegates are required to be selected in the several Counties of the State in such manner as the County Central Committee may designate, at least three (3) days before the holding of said convention; and ten (10) days' published notice shall be given of the time and place for the selection of such delegates, except where otherwise provided by law. In the interest of an early organization, it is directed that the County Central Committees be appointed at the same time that delegates are chosen, if that has not already been done.
By order of State Central Committee, JOSEPH C. BONKER, Chairman.
GEORGE R. DAVIS, Secretary.

The quail law has been so amended that quails can only be shot between the 30th of November and the 15th day of December. It permits the shooting of ducks on Mondays and Tuesdays, and allows the land owner or tenant to kill rabbits on his own ground.

The House of the Ohio Legislature has passed Senator Hughes' bill to prohibit the shipping of quail from the State, with the amendment providing that it shall also be unlawful to kill quail for the purpose of sale in the market of this State. The reception by any person within this State of any such birds for shipment to a point without the State shall be prima facie evidence that the birds were killed within the State for the purpose of carrying them beyond its limits. A fine of from $25 to $50 is provided for each offense.

The Plum election bill abolishing the ex officio judges of election and allowing the deputy supervisors to appoint all officers is now a law, having passed the house. It also prevents a party from endorsing the nominee of another party and having the person's name placed in blank ballot more than once. The power to order investigations of election irregularities, violations of the statutes, etc., is lodged not only with the state supervisor of elections, but also with deputy supervisors.

Indiana Democrats are wearing orange on their left arms and refuse to be comforted. They had no fear of future Republican rule, and a few months ago passed a law in the Legislature, under party whip, extending the terms of city officials to be chosen last Tuesday, from two to four years. The Republicans didn't do a thing but capture nine of every ten towns in which elections were held. Beautiful chickens they are that have come home to roost.—Inter Ocean.

Hillsboro Workers.

In its account of the annual meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Chillicothe Presbytery, the Fayette county Herald mentions Hillsboro workers as follows:
"Mrs. Dill, of Hillsboro, read a letter from Mr. John Smith, President of the Mary Allen Seminary, Crockett, Texas.
This year, financially so trying everywhere, has not failed to have its mark in Texas, and Mr. Smith wrote of failing resources, and begged that a special effort be made in their behalf, that none of those girls so anxious for an education need be turned away."

Mrs. W. J. McSarely was elected vice-president, Mrs. L. H. Dill corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. L. Ferris, secretary of literature.

Mrs. Hosea Patterson led in prayer for God's blessing on the foreign work.
Mrs. Stockton said La Rabida, with its treasures was filled with historical lessons. Columbus felt the need of divine help as shown from a note on the margin of one of his papers saying, "May Jesus and Mary be with us in life." Many were the lessons to be learned at our great fair.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Stockton presented resolutions of gratitude to the speakers.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union," on the death of Mrs. Jonah Langley:

WHEREAS, In the sudden departure of our esteemed and valued friend and co-worker, we have been again reminded, that "in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh!"

Resolved, That, in tendering to the stricken family and bereaved friends, our tender sympathy we would not fail to rejoice that her life motto, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," was so faithfully executed, and being always on the side of humanity's best interests, she must be entitled to that eternal reaping promised those who "sow to the spirit."

Resolved, That the zeal and earnestness of our sister, on the "temperance question," so coupled with kindly charity for all who differed from her on minor questions, should be remembered and imitated. And with loving hearts may we ever cherish her years of faithful service, and when the call comes to each one of us, may we together rest where the "law of the Lord" is the joy of the soul.

Mrs. FRED ELLIFRITZ,
Mrs. REED WILLETT,
Mrs. AGATHA BEAN,

A Bank Quits.

A copy of the Sedalia, Missouri, Gazette, of last Saturday morning, bears the information that the First National Bank of that city had closed its doors.
Assets, at the last report, $484,908 91 with deposits subject to draft and bills payable for half that amount. It is generally believed that the creditors will be paid dollar for dollar. The president of this bank is Cyrus Newkirk, who ran a dry goods store in this place from 1861 to 1864, coming here from McArthur, O.
He is the father-in-law of George Galbreath, son of the cashier of the Ripley National. The Gazette speaks highly of Mr. Newkirk and deplores the misfortune which overtook him. The bank was a victim of a lying telegram one year ago, since which there has been a steady decline in its business. The local banks of Sedalia offered to assist it through its present difficulties but feeling that it had lost the confidence of the people its proprietors concluded that although solvent it was better to wind up its affairs and go out of business, or continuing to do so under a re-organization.
It is said that Mr. Newkirk was engaged in the town booming business two or three years ago in California. It is more than likely that the troubles of this bank originated in these enterprises.

Should the State Aid the Unemployed? The two sharp articles by Dr. Coit and Means take up this subject thoroughly. The discussion bears on the large subject of what constitutes socialism; where the State's help may begin, if it begin at all, and where it may end.
This is one of the most interesting of the series of discussions of current plans for working social reforms that is now appearing in The Forum.

RAINSBORO.

May 14th, 1894.

C. L. Workman has been enjoying a visit from his brother, John Workman.
Barth Hixson and wife and J. C. Harrington and wife visited in Ross county last Sunday.

William Pensyl, of Hillsboro, was the guest of his parents last Sunday.

Howard Saxby is billed for the K. of P. Hall on the night of the 25th.

Mrs. William Bashore has been confined to her home for some time with sickness.

Masters Floyd Ferguson and Georgia Pensyl spent Sunday at Bainbridge, the guests of Earl Koger.

A three-year-old daughter of Jackson Gray is very low with consumption.

J. B. Wilson and wife and daughters, Josie, Alice and Naomi, of Sabina, were guests of J. I. Taggart and family Saturday.

Mrs. Lydia Browning has been sick for several days, but is some better.

Among the numerous applicants for our school, for the coming year, the following have been employed: E. M.
Roberts, Superintendent; Miss Edith Small, intermediate; and Miss Julia Koger, primary.

Joseph Karnes very clearly presented the subject of co-operation at the Farmers' Institute, last Saturday, according to the plan that has been attended with the best results where tried, but did not commit himself to any special theory on the subject. He was followed by a spirited discussion participated in by James W. Spargur, J. A. W. Spargur and J. W. DeWitt.

J. B. Davis, one of our aggressive farmers, is erecting an excellent and convenient barn. Z. C. Miller and son are the architects.

Rev. A. D. Maddox, of Waynesville, will preach the Memorial sermon at this place next Sunday week, and Prof. D. S.
Ferguson, of Bloomingburg, will make the oration on the following Wednesday.

Rev. George Weaver did not fill his regular appointment here last Sunday, on account of his quarterly meeting at Bainbridge.

Rev. O. M. Sellers, of Leesburg, delivered a very interesting and forcible lecture to a good-sized audience at the M. E. Church, on Tuesday evening of last week, under the auspices of the lecture bureau of the Epworth League.
Subject, Victory Tokens.

Benjamin Lewis, aged 74 years, 7 months and 29 days, died at the home of his son, Joseph Lewis, one mile northwest of Rainsboro, May 8th, 1894. He formerly lived near Sinking Spring, but, after the death of his wife, a few years ago, he came into this vicinity, where he has since resided. He has been deeply afflicted since he came among us, which has prevented an extensive acquaintance, but he won and maintained the confidence of those who knew him.
His remains were taken to Sinking Spring and laid to rest beside those of his companion. Three sons and one daughter are left to mourn.

The Lewis family wishes to express their gratitude to those who so kindly gave them sympathy and aid during the sickness and death of their father.

Bert Mercer, of Wheat Ridge, is visiting his brother, Dr. John Mercer, of this place.

Dr. D. N. McBride's venerable father

He is visiting his old home and friends in this community.

Miss Henry, a teacher of the Hillsboro College, visited Rev. Montgomery over Sunday.

Mrs. Rev. Winkler is visiting friends in Hamilton county.

Rev. Mr. Winkler preached an able sermon Sunday, on cruelty to animals.

Minor Swan, of Blanchester, was in town Saturday on business.

The farmers are finishing corn planting nearly a month earlier than last year, and a larger acreage is being planted.

There will be more fruit than was expected. A few peaches and cherries in some localities, tolerably plenty of apples and pears, abundance of blackberries.

The Christian Unions will hold a district council at Pleasant school-house, commencing Thursday at 2 p. m. It will conclude Sabbath night.

Job Haigh is building a large new barn. Miss Lillian spent Sunday in Hillsboro, the guest of Miss McSarely.

Tired Feeling and Pains Dispelled by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was in terrible misery with rheumatism in my hips and lower limbs. I read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla that I thought I would try it and see if it would relieve me.
When I commenced I could not sit up nor even turn over in bed without help. One bottle of Hood's Relieved Me so much that I was soon out of bed and could walk. I had also felt weak and tired all the time; could not sleep, and obtained so little rest at night that I felt all worn out in the morning.

I had no appetite to eat anything, but Hood's Sarsaparilla restored my appetite so that I could eat without any distress, and I have gained rapidly in strength. I have taken five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am as well as ever." Mrs. S. A. LEFEBVRE, Rossmoyn, O.
